SARAH ANN (MURPHY) CARLTON & DANIEL WILSON CARLTON

Both of these south Florida pioneers are buried in Joshua Creek Cemetery (see page 18 of this issue). It has generally been accepted by genealogists and descendants that the wife of Daniel Wilson Carlton was Sarah Ann LANIER as documented by several old Bible records. But no official county record has been found to support her maiden name. A copy of her widow's pension application from the National Archives reveals that her maiden name was MURPHY and her brother, Welles Murphy, supported her statement.
