GEORGE WASHINGTON HENDRY 1832-1882

Researched, compiled and contributed by Spessard Stone, Rt. 1, Box 255A, Wauchula, Fl. 33873.

George Washington Hendry was born February 14, 1832, Lowndes County, Georgia. He was a son of John & Catherine (McFail) Hendry and a grandson of Robert and Ann (Lee) Hendry & James and Judith McFail. With his parents after 1850, he moved to Hamilton County, Florida and in late 1855 he resettled in Peru (Riverview), Hillsborough County, Florida.

According to Soldiers of Florida, George W. Hendry as a sergeant and George W. Hendry, Jr. as a private were mustered into service on January 3, 1856 in Capt. William B. Hooker's Independent Company, Florida Mounted Volunteers. The company was mustered out of state service and into the service of the United States at Fort Meade on February 21, 1856. It was mustered out August 20, 1856. According to military/pension records of George W. Hendry who lived 1838-1914 (see South Florida Pioneers, Issue #45/46) and was a son of James Edward Hendry and a grandson of William Hendry (brother of John Hendry), he, despite his younger age, was the sergeant in Hooker's Company. On January 11, 1858 George (born 1832) enlisted as a private in Capt. William H. Kendrick's Indpt. Co., Fla. Mtd. Vols. and was mustered out May 10, 1858 at Fort Brooke.

G. W. Hendry, a farmer, age 28, was recorded in household #62/46 in the 1860 Hillsborough County Census, dated June 7, 1860. Among his neighbors were: Gideon Hague, Charles W. Hendry (his brother), William B. Moody, Archibald Hendry (his brother), J. D. E. Riggs, Timothy Bryant, Michael Alderman, Isaac Carlton.

On September 24, 1862 at Tampa, he enlisted as a private in Capt. Chambers' Independent Company, Florida Volunteers (Gulf Coast Rangers). Chambers' Company subsequently became Company A, 6th Battalion, Florida Volunteers. The 6th was formed of seven independent companies by S. O. No. 216, dated Sept. 11, 1863, and was consolidated with three independent companies by S. O. No. 99, dated April 28, 1864, to form the 9th Regiment Florida Infantry,
