	MISS LECHNER BRIDE OF RALPH MILLER St. Benedict's Catholic church was the scene of the Monday wedding of Miss Rose Marie Lechner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lechner, and Ralph W. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller. The Rev. John Kraus officiated at the 10 a. m. ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli. Mrs. Merritt Whitten, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied the bride's cousin, Eugene Lechner, who sang. " On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother". Miss Coletta Lechner, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor, Miss Caroline Brehm, also a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mrs. Max Shipley of Lincoln was brides matron. Charles Gude, Jr., served as best man and ushers were Robert Lechner, Jr., brother of the bride, and John Kenneth Scharp. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The molded bodice, which tapered to deep points in the front and back, was fashioned with a rolled collar edged in iridescent sequins and dotted with seed pearls. The long fitted sleeves formed bridal points over the hands. The full skirt fell gracefully into an aisle wide train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a satin headdress edged in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Her attendants wore gowns made identically of nylon net over taffeta in pastel shades of pink, green and blue, with bodices of lace. They wore matching mitts and headdresses and carried colonial bouquets of gladioli. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall. Mrs. Carl Lechner cut the four-tiered wedding cake and Mrs. Mary Lechner poured. Kathleen Lechner had charge of the guest book and Mrs. George Lutz, Union, Mrs. Bernard Schmitz and Mrs. Robert Davis, the gift table. Others assisting were Cleora Schmitz, Jane Lutz, Mrs. Fredolin Lechner, Mrs. Leona Wagner and Mrs. Ralph Boerner. At noon a dinner was held for members of the immediate families and the bridal party at the Ulbrick cafe. After a trip to the Black Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside in Nebraska City.
